

The Zac Ezekowitz Memorial Scholarship

The Zac Ezekowitz Memorial Scholarship is to be Awarded to the Under 19 Canadian athlete who best exemplifies the spirit of sportsmanship at squash tournaments in Canada during the twelve-month period ending June 30th of each year. The $1000 scholarship is for post-secondary education (university, college, etc.).

The selection of the recipient will be made, following review of all applications received, by a committee of the Prairie Jesters. The name of each year's recipient will be announced at the Alberta Jesters Junior Squash Championships in November.

Applications should include the following:

- a letter from the applicant outlining their thoughts on the importance of sportsmanship;
- a list of tournaments that the applicant participated in during the year for which the application is being made;
- letters of reference from a minimum of three officials and/or tournament organizers; and
- proof of registration at a post-secondary institution.

Applications are to be mailed to the Prairie Jesters at the address below, post-marked no later than November 1 of the year in which application is being made.
